AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL CATS INC

Presenting our judging line up for this show
Ring 1 All breeds
Sandi L. Mattingly Arizona TICAUSA

Sandi bought her first pedigree kitten in November, 1972, entered her first cat show in 1973 and has been hooked on all things feline ever since. She became a judge in the United Cat Federation in 1982, working her way up to Allbreed Teaching and Training Judge as well as serving as President of the Association. In 1990 she moved to the American Cat Association as an Allbreed Judge, as well as serving as a Guest Judge for the American Association of Cat Enthusiasts, Catz Inc. of New Zealand, Crown Cat Fanciers and the United Feline Organization. She is very proud to have been accepted by TICA in February, 2001 as an Approved Specialty Judge, advanced to Provisional Allbreed Judge in 2004, and Approved Allbreed Judge in 2009. In her thirty plus years as a judge, she has judged in all over the United States and throughout the world. Her cattery, D'Alsan, has been home to Persians, Exotic Shorthairs, and Scottish Folds, with her first and most lasting love affair being with the smoke colors, and a special red tabby Persian, D'Alsan's Fiero, who was Cat of the Year for UCF in 1989. She has been active in the Fancy in all the Associations, many of them simultaneously. At the moment she is an active member of Coatimondi Cat Club of Phoenix, Arizona as well as serving as the President of Desperado Cat Fanciers, Inc. of Mesa, Arizona, both active TICA Clubs. To pay the bills, she is self employed as a management consultant serving a clientele base of some 70 small to medium to large sized firms as an "On Call" CFO. When not at a cat show or at work, you will probably find her in about 100 plus feet of clear blue water in the South Pacific, deeply immersed in her other love: scuba diving. This is made further amazing since she has made her home in the desert in Phoenix, Arizona since 1964!
